Whilst it is our intention of returning your skin in the best possible condition, due to the difficulties in processing and the differing nature of each of the individual skins; shape and substance and the susceptibility by: Flaying, Bacteria, Fleshing and Shaving we can offer NO Guarantees.

I accept that there is an inherent risk to the processing of my Skin and that Classic New Zealand Ltd will process at all care and NO responsibility. I declare that these skins are from disease free animals domiciled in New Zealand. I accept that if my skin is tanned and suffers hair loss, holes open up, or any other issues due to poor preparation/selection, that could not be identified at the point of inspection I am liable. I accept that I will still be required to pay tanning cost for my skin.
